

The Lesmahagow Farmers Society banner as featured in Daniel Meikle's "Book of Wonders". The banner was made for "The Procession through Abbeygreen", to celebrate of the passing of the Franchise Act of 1832.

The original banner has long since disappeared.

Daniel Meikle was a self educated Hand Loom Weaver, with a keen eye and an interest in the on-going activities in Lesmahagow during the early years of the 19th century. He was born in 1783 and died in 1857.

The above is an outline sketch of Mr Meikle's original coloured drawing by Robert S. McLeish in 1986.

From Lesmahagow Parish Historical Association Archive.
08/04/2009.